RAW CONCEPT

LIGHTER IS FASTER

Fat Pipe's lightest stick for players whose passion is to feel the ball. Super fast and responsive carbon shaft with 11 layers of untreated finishing gives you keys to control the ball accurately and smoothly.

Raw Concept Low Kick shafts are combined with Raw Concept lightness and Low Kick technology from the K.O. series. With superlight low kick point shaft you get faster and more controlled release for your shots which make it easy to shoot in tight space.

K.O.

DESIGNED FOR SHOOTERS

Lightweight K.O. Series is designed for shooters. 100% Carbon shafts with stabilizing carbon fibers makes shooting easy and super fast. With low kick point shaft you get faster and more controlled release for your shots which make it easy to shoot in tight space. Also fibers lower the center point of the mass giving the optimal balance for shooting and controlling the ball.
